

Mr. Van Zandt (to Mr. Darrouzet): Reverse the question.

Mr. Darrouzet (to audience): Do you believe that they ought to get their money?

Audience: Sure, we do. (No dissenting voice was heard.)

After short talks by some of the members of the committee, Senator Holbrook and Mr. Darrouzet, the hearing was closed.

The State of Texas,
County of Galveston.

I, Mary E. McGowan, do hereby certify that the foregoing one hundred twenty-one (121) pages of type-written matter constitute a transcript of the proceedings had at a meeting of the Committee of Claims and Accounts of the House of Representatives of the State of Texas, held at 10 a. m., on February 14, 1931, at the auditorium of the Dickinson High School, Dickinson, Galveston County, Texas, for the purpose of hearing claims of Galveston County dairymen sponsored by the Mainland Chamber of Commerce, which claims grew out of damages resulting from hoof-and-mouth disease quarantine in 1925 and 1926; and I do further certify that such transcript is true and correct.

Witness my hand this 20th day of February, A. D. 1931.

MARY E. MCGOWAN,
Official Court Reporter, Fifty-sixth
District Court.

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY.

(Wednesday, March 25, 1931.)

The House met at 9:30 o'clock a. m., and was called to order by Speaker Minor.

HOUSE BILL NO. 574, WITH SENATE AMENDMENTS.

Mr. Mehl called up from the Speaker's table, with Senate amendments, for consideration of the amendments,

H. B. No. 574, A bill to be entitled "An Act to provide more adequate compensation for county treasurers in counties of a population of not less than 250,000 and not more than 310,000, as shown by the last Federal census of 1930, where the treasurer of such counties acts as paymaster for the county, in addition to the regular duties as county treasurer; and providing for the employment of an assistant for such treasurers, and declaring an emergency."

The Speaker laid the bill before the House, and the Senate amendments were read.

On motion of Mr. Mehl, the House concurred in the Senate amendments by the following vote:

BILLS ORDERED NOT PRINTED.

On motion of Mr. Gilbert, House bills Nos. 898 and 915 were ordered not printed.

HOUSE BILL NO. 241 ON PAS-SAGE TO ENGROSSMENT.

The Speaker laid before the House, as unfinished business, on its passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 241, A bill to be entitled "An Act making an appropriation to reimburse persons, firms and corporations for losses sustained during the years of 1929 and 1930 by reason of the establishment by the State of Texas of regulated and restricted zones in certain areas of the State requiring such persons, firms and corporations to pay money for the sterilization of seed and the fumigation of cotton, etc., and declaring an emergency."

The bill having heretofore been read second time.

(Mr. Patterson in the chair.)

Mr. Satterwhite offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 241, page 2, line 8, by striking out the period after the word "amounts" and substituting in lieu thereof a semicolon, and then add the following: "provided, the moneys herein appropriated shall not be available until after September 1, 1931."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Brooks offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 241, in line 24, page 1, by substituting the sum of "$300,000" for "$500,000."

Mr. DeWolfe moved the previous question on the pending amendment and amendment on the Speaker's table by Mr. Terrell of Cherokee, and the bill, and the main question was ordered.

(Speaker in the chair.)

Question first recurring on the amendment by Mr. Brooks, yeas and nays were demanded.

The amendment was adopted by the following vote:

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

Senate Chamber,
Austin, Texas, March 25, 1931.

Hon. Fred H. Minor, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has passed the following:

S. B. No. 214, A bill to be entitled "An Act to provide for a permanent record of all marriages and divorces in the State of Texas; to prescribe the manner in which such records shall be preserved; to prescribe the duties of officials handling such records; to provide for a fund to maintain the Bureau of Vital Statistics, and to provide for the manner in which such fund shall be handled; to prescribe such other requirements as may be necessary to secure a complete and permanent and perpetual record of every birth, death, marriage and divorce in the State of Texas; making the violation of any of the provisions of this act a misdemeanor, and prescribing a punishment therefor; providing for the collection and disposition of fees; repealing all laws in conflict herewith; making an appropriation, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 337, A bill to be entitled "An Act to define marginal wells; declaring it to constitute waste artificially to restrict the normal production therefrom; directing the Railroad Commission to promulgate rules and regulations to prevent such artificial restriction except in certain cases; providing for notices, hearings and reviews of such rules and orders; prohibiting the artificial restriction of such wells, and providing for penalties; declaring each provision independent of each other provision, and declaring an emergency."

The Senate has read and adopted

H. C. R. No. 33, Relating to poet laureate for Texas.

Respectfully,

JNO. B. DuPRIEST,

Assistant Secretary of the Senate.

BILL SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER.

The Speaker signed, in the presence of the House, after giving due notice thereof and its caption had been read, the following enrolled bill:

H. B. No. 30, "An Act amending Article 604 of the 1925 Penal Code of the State of Texas, so as to make it mandatory that the court, or judge thereof, set down at hearing an allowance for the support of deserted wives and children, providing for incidentals thereto, and declaring an emergency."

ANNOUNCEMENT OF MARRIAGE OF HON. W. S. BARRON.

The Speaker laid before the House, and had read, the following announcement:

Mr. and Mrs. John Hugh DuBois announce the marriage of their daughter, Bess, to Mr. Stuart Barron on Tuesday, March 24, 1931, at Cameron, Texas. At home, 2601 West Twenty-sixth street, Bryan, Texas.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE GRANTED.

On motion of Mr. Reader (by unanimous consent), Mr. Terrell of Val Verde was granted leave of absence for today on account of illness.

HOUSE BILL NO. 882 ON SECOND READING.

On motion of Mr. Greathouse (by unanimous consent), the regular order of business was suspended to take up and have placed on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 882, A bill to be entitled "An Act providing that certain cities having the population requirements set forth therein may acquire and own special assessment certificates issued in connection with street improvements; that such cities may pledge and impound said certificates as the basis for the issuance of special improvement bonds, subject to the limitations and provisions of this act, etc., and declaring an emergency."

The Speaker laid the bill before the House, it was read second time and was passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 882 ON THIRD READING.

Mr. Beck moved that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that House bill No. 882 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote:

RECESS.

On motion of Mr. Adkins, the House, at 12 o'clock m., took recess to 2 o'clock p. m. today.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The House met at 2 o'clock p. m., and was called to order by the Speaker.

HOUSE BILLS ON FIRST READING.

The following House bills, introduced today (by unanimous consent), were laid before the House, read severally first time, and referred to the appropriate committees, as follows:

By Mr. Anderson:

H. B. No. 989, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Article 4769 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, regarding annual reports of insurance companies, and declaring an emergency."

Referred to Committee on Revenue and Taxation.

By Mr. Graves:

H. B. No. 990, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Articles 608 and 609, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, relating to public printing, and prescribing the duties of the State Board of Control relative to public printing; providing for contracts for public printing, binding, stationery and supplies of like character for all departments, institutions and boards save and except such work as may be done at the various educational, eleemosynary and penal institutions and the State School for Deaf; prescribing how contracts therefor shall be let, exempting State-owned institutions from certain provisions relative to giving bond, and declaring an emergency."

Referred to Committee on Public Printing.

By Mr. Harrison of El Paso:

H. B. No. 991, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 1307 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and legalizing and validating certain notices heretofore given, and declaring an emergency."

Referred to Committee on Municipal and Private Corporations.

By Mrs. Hughes, Mr. McCombs, Mr. Coombes, Mr. Holder, Mr. Keller and Mr. Savage:

H. B. No. 992, A bill to be entitled "An Act establishing a county law library in certain counties; providing a fund to be administered by the commissioners court to be raised by collecting fifty cents as costs in each case hereafter filed in civil or criminal county and/or district courts; providing for appointment of a custodian or librarian, and his salary; providing for housing and management, and declaring an emergency."

Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

NOTICE GIVEN.

Mr. Boyd gave notice that he would on tomorrow move to take up, for consideration at that time, Senate bill No. 400, which bill had heretofore been laid on the table subject to call.

HOUSE BILL NO. 981 ON SECOND READING.

On motion of Mr. Pope (by unanimous consent), the regular order of business was suspended to take up and have placed on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 981, A bill to be entitled "An Act to empower cities having a population of not less than twenty-seven thousand (27,000) nor more than twenty-eight thousand (28,000) inhabitants, as shown by the preceding Federal census, to encumber any one or more of its gas, water, light or sewer systems, the income thereof and everything pertaining thereto or any part thereof, and by the terms of such encumbrance to grant to the purchaser under any sale or foreclosure under such encumbrance a franchise to operate said encumbered system or systems for not over twenty years after such purchase, etc., and declaring an emergency."

The Speaker laid the bill before the House, and it was read second time.

Mr. Pope offered the following amendments to the bill:

(1)

Amend House bill No. 981 by striking out of the caption and out of Section 1 the following language, to-wit: "having a population of not less than twenty-seven thousand (27,000) nor more than twenty-eight thousand (28,000) inhabitants, as shown by the preceding Federal census," and insert in lieu thereof the following, to-wit: "owning and operating their light systems or water systems or sewer systems and gas systems."

(2)

Amend House bill No. 981 by adding between Sections 9 and 10 a new section, to be numbered 93, to read as follows:

"Section 9a. House bill No. 615, passed by the Regular Session of the Forty-second Legislature of the State of Texas, relating to the same matters herein contained is hereby repealed."

(3)

Amend House bill No. 981 by adding after the word "systems" last appearing in the caption, the following: "repealing House bill No. 615, passed by the Forty-second Legislature of Texas."

The amendments were severally adopted.

House bill No. 981 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 981 ON THIRD READING.

Mr. Pope moved that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that House bill No. 981 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote:

HOUSE BILL NO. 7 ON PASSAGE TO ENGROSSMENT.

Mr. Reader moved to take up, for consideration at this time,

H. B. No. 7, A bill to be entitled "An Act regulating the practice of medicine; amending Article 4495 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, so as to provide for the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners and for the appointment of the members of said Board, etc., and declaring an emergency."

The bill having heretofore been read second time and laid on the table subject to call, due notice having been given that same would be called up today.

The motion prevailed.

Mr. Farmer offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 7 by inserting after the word "Board" in line 27 on page 2 the following words: "provided, at least two members of the said Board shall be chiropractors who are graduates of reputable and legal chiropractic colleges and who have resided and practiced the science of chiropractic in Texas for more than three years prior to their appointment on said Board. And said chiropractic members of the said Board shall have charge of the examination of all applicants who desire to practice chiropractic in Texas."

Mr. Dodd moved the previous question on the pending amendment and the bill, and the main question was ordered.

Question first recurring on the amendment by Mr. Farmer, it was lost.

House bill No. 7 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 7 ON THIRD READING.

Mr. Reader moved that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that House bill No. 7 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote:

BILL AND RESOLUTION SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER.

The Speaker signed, in the presence of the House, after giving due notice thereof and their captions had been read severally, the following enrolled bill and resolution:

H. C. R. No. 33, Designating Poet Laureate of Texas.

H. B. No. 574, "An Act to provide more adequate compensation for county treasurers in counties of a population of not less than 250,000 and not more than 310,000, as shown by the last Federal census of 1930, where the treasurer of such counties acts as paymaster for the county in addition to the regular duties as county treasurer; and providing for the employment of an assistant for such treasurers, and declaring an emergency."

HOUSE BILL NO. 185 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, as a special order for this hour, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 185, A bill to be entitled "An Act to apportion the State of Texas into congressional districts, naming the counties composing the same, and providing for the election of a member of the Congress of the United States from each district, repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Metcalfe offered the following (committee) amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 185 by striking out all of Section 1 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. The State of Texas shall be apportioned into the following congressional districts, each of which shall be entitled to elect one member of the Congress of the United States:

Mr. Engelhard offered the following amendment to the (committee) amendment:

Amend committee amendment No. 1 to House bill No. 185 by striking out all of lines 34, 35, 36 and 37, page 4, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Seventh: The following counties shall compose the Seventh District, to-wit: Guadalupe, Wilson, Karnes, Goliad, Refugio, Aransas, San Patricio, Atascosa, McMullen, Live Oak, Bee, Jim Wells and Nueces."

By striking out all of lines 40, page 4, and 1, 2 and 3, page 5, and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

"Ninth: The following counties shall compose the Ninth District, to-wit: Galveston, Chambers, Brazoria, Fort Bend, Wharton, Matagorda, Colorado, Fayette, Gonzales, Lavaca, Jackson, Victoria, DeWitt and Calhoun."

The amendment was adopted.

The committee amendment as amended was then adopted.

Mr. Metcalfe asked unanimous consent of the House to reconsider the vote by which the committee amendment was adopted.

There was no objection offered, and it was so ordered.

Mr. Metcalfe moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Mr. Engelhard to the amendment was adopted.

The motion prevailed.

Mr. Van Zandt moved that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Congressional Districts.

(Speaker in the chair.)

Mrs. Moore moved to table the amendment by Mr. Engelhard.

Question first recurring on the motion to recommit the bill, yeas and nays were demanded.

The motion to recommit was lost by the following vote:

ADDRESS BY HON. CHAS. G. WOOD.

In accordance with a concurrent resolution heretofore adopted inviting the Hon. Charles G. Wood to address the Legislature, the Speaker announced the appointment of the following committee on the part of the House to escort Mr. Wood to the Speaker's stand.

Messrs. Leonard, Cunningham, Adams of Jasper and Finn.

The Honorable Senate, escorted by Bob Barker, Secretary of the Senate, appeared at the bar of the House and, being admitted, were escorted to seats prepared for them along the aisle.

Hon. Charles G. Wood and party, accompanied by Messrs. Leonard, Cunningham, Adams of Jasper, Finn, and Senators Woodul, Hornsby and Purl, appeared at the bar of the House and, being admitted, occupied seats on the Speaker's stand.

The Senate was called to order by Senator Geo. Purl.

Speaker Minor then stated that the House and Senate were in joint session for the purpose of hearing an address by Hon. Charles G. Wood.

Speaker Minor then presented Mr. Leonard, who in turn introduced Mr. Wood.

Mr. Wood then addressed the joint session.

At the conclusion of the address, the Senate retired to its Chamber.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

Senate Chamber,

Austin, Texas, March 25, 1931.

Hon. Fred H. Minor, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has passed the following:

H. B. No. 6, A bill to be entitled "An Act further regulating the practice of medicine within this State; requiring the payment of annual registration fee by all persons lawfully qualified and engaged in the practice of medicine, and conferring certain powers on the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners, etc., and declaring an emergency."

H. B. No. 131, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend subdivision 6 of Article 199, Title 8, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, the same fixing the time and prescribing the number of terms of district court in and for the Sixth Judicial District of Texas by providing for and prescribing an additional term of said court in Fannin county, and further providing that the judge of the Sixth Judicial District shall convene a grand jury in Fannin county at only two terms of said court in each year unless in his judgment it be necessary for a grand jury at either or both of the remaining terms, and repealing all laws in conflict herewith, and declaring an emergency."

H. B. No. 255, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 698 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of the State of Texas; providing that the proper judgment be entered on verdicts; providing that in misdemeanor cases where the verdict or plea is guilty and the punishment is by fine only, the court or judge may defer judgment; providing judgment; providing for recognizance or bail for the defendant, and declaring an emergency," with amendment.

H. B. No. 808, A bill to be entitled "An Act making it lawful to take or catch catfish, perch, buffalo, and drum in any of the waters of Delta, Hopkins or Franklin counties, with a seine having meshes two inches square, and declaring an emergency," with amendment.

The Senate refuses to concur in House amendments to Senate bill No. 103, and requests a free conference committee on part of the House. The Senate has appointed on part of the Senate the following:

Senators Beck, Moore, Thomason, Small and Patton.

Respectfully,
JNO. B. DUPRIEST,
Assistant Secretary of the Senate.

SPECIAL ORDER SET.

On motion of Mr. Brooks, House bill No. 770 was set as a special order for 10 o'clock a. m. next Tuesday.

HOUSE BILL NO. 808, WITH SENATE AMENDMENTS.

Mr. Brice called up from the Speaker's table, with Senate amendments, for consideration of the amendments,

H. B. No. 808, A bill to be entitled "An Act making it lawful to take or catch catfish, perch, buffalo and drum in any of the waters of Delta, Hopkins or Franklin counties with a seine having meshes two inches square, and declaring an emergency."

The Speaker laid the bill before the House, and the Senate amendments were read.

On motion of Mr. Brice, the House concurred in the Senate amendments by the following vote:

HOUSE BILL NO. 834 ON SECOND
READING.

On motion of Mr. Dale (by unanimous consent), the regular order of business was suspended to take up and have placed on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 834, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Article 3937, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by Chapter 20, Section 7, Acts of the Fourth Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, and declaring an emergency."

The Speaker laid the bill before the House, and it was read second time.

Mr. Dale offered the following (committee) amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 834 by striking out the words "fifty thousand inhabitants or less" and substitute in lieu thereof the following: "not more than forty-two thousand (42,000) nor less than forty-one thousand (41,000), according to the Federal census of 1930."

Mr. Wagstaff offered the following substitute for the (committee) amendment:

Amend House bill No. 834 by striking out the words "fifty thousand inhabitants or less" in lines 34 and 35, page 1, and substitute in lieu thereof the following: "or might hereafter be not more than 42,000 nor less than 41,050 inhabitants, according to the preceding United States census."

The substitute amendment was adopted.

The amendment as substituted was then adopted.

House bill No. 834 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 834 ON THIRD
READING.

Mr. Dale moved that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that House bill No. 834 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote:

HOUSE BILL NO. 294 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 294, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Article 6954, Chapter 6, Title 121, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended in Chapter 245 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-first Legislature of Texas, as amended in Chapter 5 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-first Legislature of Texas, and as further amended in Chapter 71 of the Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature of Texas, the latter being House bill No. 120, passed by the First Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, and further amended in Chapter 8 of the Acts of the Third Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, Senate bill No. 22, with reference to the mode of preventing horses and certain other animals from running at large in the counties named, so as to include in said article the counties of Carson and Oldham, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Warwick offered the following amendments to the bill:

(1)

Amend House bill No. 294 by adding the names "Aransas, Stephens, Karnes and Burleson counties" in their proper place.

(2)

Amend House bill No. 294, Section 1, by striking out the word "Texas" in line 7 and substituting in lieu thereof the word "Forty-first."

The amendments were severally adopted.

House bill No. 294 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 294 ON THIRD READING.

Mr. Warwick moved that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that House bill No. 294 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

HOUSE BILL NO. 571 ON SECOND
READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 571, A bill to be entitled "An Act providing a more efficient road law for Sabine county, Texas, authorizing the commissioners court to refund the indebtedness incurred for road and bridge purposes and to levy a tax in payment thereof, making this act cumulative of all other laws applicable to said laws in harmony with the provisions hereof, repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Adams of Jasper offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 571 by adding the following section:

"Section 2. From and after the taking effect of this act, it shall be unlawful for the commissioners court of Sabine county to issue or cause to be issued any warrant, scrip, or other evidence of indebtedness, or to create any debt against the road and bridge fund of said county, except as authorized by this act, in excess of the current revenues of said county for road and bridge purposes; provided, that in case of great calamity said court may issue warrants against the road and bridge fund in excess of the current revenues, for the purpose of repairing roads and building bridges occasioned by such calamity, but in no instance shall such warrants exceed the limitations provided by the Constitution and laws of this State; and provided further that no warrant shall be issued for such purposes until first authorized by order passed by said court, and provided further that said order shall recite fully the necessity therefor and particularly specify the several purposes for which said warrants are to be issued, which said order shall be spread upon the minutes of said court, and shall be published at least one time in some newspaper published in Sabine county before said warrants are issued. If no newspaper is being published in said county, then in some newspaper in an adjoining county nearest the county seat of said Sabine county."

The amendment was adopted.

House bill No. 571 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 571 ON THIRD
READING.

Mr. Adams of Jasper moved that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that House bill No. 571 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote:

HOUSE BILL NO. 678 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 678, A bill to be entitled "An Act creating a more efficient road system for Johnson county, Texas; providing that the county commissioners shall be road commissioners of their respective precincts; providing that such commissioners shall have charge of the road teams, tools, machinery, and appliances of said county under the direction of the commissioners court, etc., and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Veatch offered the following (committee) amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 678 by adding the following section:

"Section 5. From and after the taking effect of this act, it shall be unlawful for the commissioners court of Johnson county to issue or cause to be issued any warrant, scrip, or other evidence of indebtedness, or to create any debt against the road and bridge fund of said county, except as authorized by this act, in excess of the current revenues of said county for road and bridge purposes; provided, that in case of great calamity said court may issue warrants against the road and bridge fund in excess of the current revenues, for the purpose of repairing roads and building bridges occasioned by such calamity, but in no instance shall such warrants exceed the limitations provided by the Constitution and laws of this State; and provided further that no warrant shall be issued for such purposes until first authorized by order passed by said court, and provided further that said order shall recite fully the necessity therefor and particularly specify the several purposes for which said warrants are to be issued, which said order shall be spread upon the minutes of said court, and shall be published at least one time in some newspaper published in Johnson county before said warrants are issued. If no newspaper is being published in said county, then in some newspaper in any adjoining county nearest the county seat of said Johnson county."

The amendment was adopted.

House bill No. 678 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 678 ON THIRD READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 695, A bill to be entitled "An Act providing a more efficient road law for Dickens county, Texas; authorizing the commissioners court to refund that part of the principal and interest of its county-wide road bonds which will mature in March and April, 1931, by the issuance of refunding bonds in said amount, etc., and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Claunch offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 695 by adding the following section:

"Sec. 2. From and after the taking effect of this act it shall be unlawful for the commissioners court of Dickens county to issue or cause to be issued any warrant, scrip or other evidence of indebtedness, or to create any debt against the road and bridge fund of said county, except as authorized by this act, in excess of the current revenues of said county for road and bridge purposes; provided, that in case of great calamity said court may issue warrants against the road and bridge fund in excess of the current revenues for the purpose of repairing roads and building bridges occasioned by such calamity, but in no instance shall such warrants exceed the limitations provided by the Constitution and laws of this State; and provided further, that no warrant shall be issued for such purposes until first authorized by order passed by said court; and provided further, that said order shall recite fully the necessity therefor and particularly specify the several purposes for which said warrants are to be issued, which order shall be spread upon the minutes of said court, and shall be published at least one time in some newspaper published in Dickens county before said warrants are issued. If no newspaper is being published in said county, then in some newspaper in an adjoining county nearest the county seat of said Dickens county."

The amendment was adopted

House bill No. 695 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 695 ON THIRD READING.

Mr. Claunch moved that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that House bill No. 695 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote:

HOUSE BILL NO. 744 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 744, A bill to be entitled "An Act repealing Chapter 86 of the Third Called Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, known as House bill No. 164, and being a special road law for Blanco county, and providing that the general road laws of the State of Texas shall govern in Blanco county from the date of the passage of this act, with the following exceptions and additional provisions herein set out; and providing for the refunding of indebtedness of Blanco county heretofore made and evidenced by warrants or certificates of indebtedness heretofore issued, and as such same shall be known as the local road laws of Blanco county."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Vaughan offered the following (committee) amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 714 by adding the following section:

"Section 4. From and after the taking effect of this act, it shall be unlawful for the commissioners court of Blanco county to issue or cause to be issued any warrant, scrip, or other evidence of indebtedness, or to create any debt against the road and bridge fund of said county, except as authorized by this act, in excess of the current revenues of said county for road and bridge purposes; provided that in case of great calamity said court may issue warrants against the road and bridge fund in excess of the current revenues, for the purpose of repairing roads and building bridges occasioned by such calamity, but in no instance shall such warrants exceed the limitations provided by the Constitution and laws of this State; and provided further that no warrant shall be issued for such purposes until first authorized by order passed by said court, and provided further that said order shall recite fully the necessity therefor and particularly specify the several purposes for which said warrants are to be issued, which said order shall be spread upon the minutes of said court, and shall be published at least one time in some newspaper published in Blanco county before said warrants are issued. If no newspaper is being published in said county, then in some newspaper in an adjoining county nearest the county seat of said Blanco county."

The amendment was adopted.

House bill No. 744 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 255 WITH SENATE AMENDMENTS.

Mr. Holland called up from the Speaker's table, with Senate amendments, for consideration of the amendments,

H. B. No. 255, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 698 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of the State of Texas; providing that the proper judgment be entered on verdicts; providing that in misdemeanor cases where the verdict or plea is guilty and the punishment is by fine only, the court or judge may defer judgment; providing judgment; providing for recognizance or bail for the defendant, and declaring an emergency."

The Speaker laid the bill before the House, and the Senate amendments were read.

On motion of Mr. Holland, the House concurred in the Senate amendments.

SENATE BILLS ON FIRST READING.

The following Senate bills, received from the Senate today, were laid before the House, read severally first time, and referred to the appropriate committees, as follows:

Senate bill No. 214, to the Committee on State Affairs.

Senate bill No. 337, to the Committee on Oil, Gas and Mining.

REASON FOR VOTE.

I vote "nay" on House bills Nos. 834, 660, 739, 750, 754, 756, 758, 793, 820, 294, 390, 570, 571, 659, 678, 686, 693, 695, 717, 744, 746 and 776 because no evidence of the "notice" required by Section 57 of Article III of the Constitution was "exhibited" in the Legislature before such bills were passed, and some of them are in violation of Section 56 of Article III of the Constitution.

FARMER.

ADJOURNMENT.

On motion of Mr. McGill, the House, at 6 o'clock p. m., adjourned until 9:30 o'clock a. m. tomorrow.
